

Acts 27:29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

Acts 27:30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

Acts 27:40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

The background of the image shows two white butterflies with delicate wing patterns resting on vibrant green leaves. The butterflies are positioned on the left and center of the frame, with their wings partially spread. The leaves are lush and detailed, with some showing signs of being eaten. The overall scene is bright and natural, providing a serene backdrop for the biblical text.
